

The Pacific Commercial Advertiser.
 Issued Every Morning, Except Sunday, by the
HAWAIIAN GAZETTE COMPANY,
 Von Holt Block, King Street.
A. W. PEARSON,
 Business Manager.

Oahu Railway & Land Co.

TIME TABLE.

From and after Jan. 1, 1900.

OUTWARD.
Stations.	ex.	ex.	ex.	ex.
Honolulu.	7:30	8:15	11:05	5:30
Pearl City.	8:00	8:45	11:30	5:50
Ewa Mill.	8:25	9:10	11:55	6:10
Waiwae.	8:50	9:35	12:20	6:30
Waikeolu.	9:15	10:00	12:45	6:50
Kahuku.	9:40	10:25	1:10	7:10

INWARD.
Stations.	ex.	ex.	ex.	ex.
Kahuku.	6:00	6:45	9:30	2:05
Waikeolu.	6:25	7:10	9:55	2:30
Waiwae.	6:50	7:35	10:20	2:55
Ewa Mill.	7:15	8:00	10:45	3:20
Pearl City.	7:40	8:25	11:10	3:45
Honolulu.	8:05	8:50	11:35	4:10

W. P. DENISON, Superintendent.
F. C. SMITH, G. P. & T. A.

METEOROLOGICAL RECORD.

By the Government Survey, Published Every Monday.

Day.	Barom.	Therm.	Wind.	Force.
Aug. 23.	30.0	72.0	SE.	5-5
24.	30.0	72.0	SE.	5-5
25.	30.0	72.0	SE.	5-5
26.	30.0	72.0	SE.	5-5
27.	30.0	72.0	SE.	5-5
28.	30.0	72.0	SE.	5-5
29.	30.0	72.0	SE.	5-5
30.	30.0	72.0	SE.	5-5
31.	30.0	72.0	SE.	5-5

Barometer corrected to 32 F. and sea level, and for standard gravity of Lat. 42. This correction is -.06 for Honolulu.

TIDES, SUN AND MOON.

Day.	Aug.	Aug.	Aug.	Aug.	Aug.	Aug.	Aug.	Aug.	Aug.
Mon.	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28
High Tide.	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
Low Tide.	4:30	5:00	5:30	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30

New moon on the 24th at 5:23 p. m.

Tides from the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey tables:

The tides at Honolulu and Hilo occur about one hour earlier than at Honolulu. Hawaiian standard time is 10 hours 30 minutes slower than Greenwich time, being that of the meridian at 157 degrees 30 minutes. The time while the moon is at 120° E. M. is the same as Greenwich, 0 hours 0 minutes. Sun and moon are for local time for the whole group.

SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE.

DIAMOND HEAD SIGNAL STATION, August 23, 10 p. m.—Weather, thick; wind, light, N. E.

ARRIVED AT HONOLULU.

Thursday, August 23.

Br. sp. Carried Llewellyn, Griffith, from Hamburg for Seattle; Briggs, cement, for Hawaiian Fertilizer Co.

BAILED FROM HONOLULU.

Thursday, August 23.

Am. bk. Sea King, Wallace, for the Bound.

Stmr. Kauai, Bruhn, for Waimea and Elele, 5 p. m.

Am. schr. Wm. Bowden, Fjerin, for Port Townsend in ballast, 7 a. m.

TO SAIL TODAY.

Stmr. Mauna Loa, Simerson, for Lahaina, Kona and Kauai, 10 a. m.

TEACHERS WANTED

IN PHILIPPINES

Superintendent F. W. Atkinson Writes to Namesake Here.

Here's a chance for Hawaiian pedagogues who would like to teach the young ones how to shoot in American fashion in the Philippines. Fred W. Atkinson, the distinguished Superintendent of Instruction for the Philippines, who was dispatched by President McKinley some weeks ago to take charge of educational matters there, has written to his namesake, Alatau T. Atkinson, telling the need of suitable teachers in his territory and asking the co-operation of Hawaii.

When the Philippines' Atkinson was here he was entertained by Hawaii's Atkinson and was much impressed by the latter's grasp of educational affairs. Now he writes, and among other things says: "There will be need here of some dozen or more first-class primary and grammar school teachers. Have you in mind some normal school graduates of successful experience who will come here for three years to teach in a model school and at the same time assist the native teachers in learning our educational ways? Adaptability, tact and some facility in acquiring languages, are a few of the necessary qualifications."

"We also want some eight or ten young men to become superintendents in some of the larger cities. My plan is, right away, to establish here in Manila, a normal school."

"I am making our wants known to some of the leading educators of the United States, and I am counting specially upon your co-operation in this important matter."

Alatau T. Atkinson will do all that is possible to answer Fred W. Atkinson, and will present his offer to such persons as appear qualified for the positions in Aguinaldo's country.

Libel Against the Dunreggan.

The Dunreggan case came up before Judge Estee in the Federal Court yesterday, when an answer was filed by the ship to the libel of the tug Fearless for the $20,000 which is claimed for pulling the vessel off the reef at Diamond Head. The matter was referred to United States Commissioner Robinson to take testimony.

JACK TARS IN COURT

Tell Their Troubles To Estee.

BAD GRUB ON "EMPIRE."

Men of the Newcastle Collier Have Many Woes to Unfold—The Court's Verdict.

The reek of the forecastle pervaded Judge Estee's court room yesterday afternoon. Lining all the benches, crowding so thick that there was scarcely breathing space, sat row on row of able seamen and "abait-mast" men come to listen to the libel case against the bark Empire.

The case was one of unusual interest and lasted throughout the afternoon. At adjournment yesterday its status was somewhat peculiar, for Judge Estee had announced his judgment on both the legal question involved and the facts in the case while the libellants only had finished putting in their testimony, and a witness for the defense was still upon the stand.

Attorney George Davis appeared for the sailors who had libeled the vessel. He had witnesses by the score to tell of the conditions on the bark during the trip from Newcastle, and, judging from their stories, it was no Hawaiian Hotel fare that was provided them in the forecastle.

"The barreled pig was bad," said one of the sailors, "and the water was almost undrinkable. It was rafter water and we could hardly drink it after we had been a few days out."

"Did you make any complaint to the captain?" asked Attorney McClanahan, who was representing the defense.

"Yes, sir, after we got into port," the man replied.

"Why did you not tell the captain about the bad food while you were at sea?"

"I never did that on any ship that I was sailing in," the sailor replied, visions of the brig and irons before his eyes, in all likelihood, for he avoided the eye of the gruff little grey-bearded captain who sat across the room.

Several witnesses told of the same conditions. Some said that the provender was bad throughout the seventy-day voyage, while others averred that it was only bad during the last fortnight at sea. But none had made any complaint to the captain, except Christopher Collins, the spokesman of the lot, who had met with no satisfaction when he had made complaint.

"You ask for $27.78 wages and $5 for the bad food, at the rate of $1 per day for the voyage, do you not, in your complaint?" asked Davis of Collins.

"That's what we think would be right to pay us," Collins said.

Attorney Davis kept calling witnesses and more witnesses to tell of the same conditions, but finally Judge Estee lost patience.

"Seems to me you've proved the fact that the food was bad," he said. "Anyway the Court is satisfied of it. But the Court is not going to charge the ship with the payment of this $5 per man for the bad food, for the Court is satisfied that there was no complaint to the captain, and the Court can't see how he was to know that the sailors were not getting good food if they did not complain to him."

"That's what we think would be right to pay us," Collins said.

Attorney Davis kept calling witnesses and more witnesses to tell of the same conditions, but finally Judge Estee lost patience.

"Seems to me you've proved the fact that the food was bad," he said. "Anyway the Court is satisfied of it. But the Court is not going to charge the ship with the payment of this $5 per man for the bad food, for the Court is satisfied that there was no complaint to the captain, and the Court can't see how he was to know that the sailors were not getting good food if they did not complain to him."

"That's what we think would be right to pay us," Collins said.

Attorney Davis kept calling witnesses and more witnesses to tell of the same conditions, but finally Judge Estee lost patience.

"Seems to me you've proved the fact that the food was bad," he said. "Anyway the Court is satisfied of it. But the Court is not going to charge the ship with the payment of this $5 per man for the bad food, for the Court is satisfied that there was no complaint to the captain, and the Court can't see how he was to know that the sailors were not getting good food if they did not complain to him."

"That's what we think would be right to pay us," Collins said.

Attorney Davis kept calling witnesses and more witnesses to tell of the same conditions, but finally Judge Estee lost patience.

"Seems to me you've proved the fact that the food was bad," he said. "Anyway the Court is satisfied of it. But the Court is not going to charge the ship with the payment of this $5 per man for the bad food, for the Court is satisfied that there was no complaint to the captain, and the Court can't see how he was to know that the sailors were not getting good food if they did not complain to him."

"That's what we think would be right to pay us," Collins said.

Attorney Davis kept calling witnesses and more witnesses to tell of the same conditions, but finally Judge Estee lost patience.

"Seems to me you've proved the fact that the food was bad," he said. "Anyway the Court is satisfied of it. But the Court is not going to charge the ship with the payment of this $5 per man for the bad food, for the Court is satisfied that there was no complaint to the captain, and the Court can't see how he was to know that the sailors were not getting good food if they did not complain to him."

"That's what we think would be right to pay us," Collins said.

Attorney Davis kept calling witnesses and more witnesses to tell of the same conditions, but finally Judge Estee lost patience.

"Seems to me you've proved the fact that the food was bad," he said. "Anyway the Court is satisfied of it. But the Court is not going to charge the ship with the payment of this $5 per man for the bad food, for the Court is satisfied that there was no complaint to the captain, and the Court can't see how he was to know that the sailors were not getting good food if they did not complain to him."

"That's what we think would be right to pay us," Collins said.

Attorney Davis kept calling witnesses and more witnesses to tell of the same conditions, but finally Judge Estee lost patience.

"Seems to me you've proved the fact that the food was bad," he said. "Anyway the Court is satisfied of it. But the Court is not going to charge the ship with the payment of this $5 per man for the bad food, for the Court is satisfied that there was no complaint to the captain, and the Court can't see how he was to know that the sailors were not getting good food if they did not complain to him."

"That's what we think would be right to pay us," Collins said.

Attorney Davis kept calling witnesses and more witnesses to tell of the same conditions, but finally Judge Estee lost patience.

"Seems to me you've proved the fact that the food was bad," he said. "Anyway the Court is satisfied of it. But the Court is not going to charge the ship with the payment of this $5 per man for the bad food, for the Court is satisfied that there was no complaint to the captain, and the Court can't see how he was to know that the sailors were not getting good food if they did not complain to him."

"That's what we think would be right to pay us," Collins said.

Attorney Davis kept calling witnesses and more witnesses to tell of the same conditions, but finally Judge Estee lost patience.

"Seems to me you've proved the fact that the food was bad," he said. "Anyway the Court is satisfied of it. But the Court is not going to charge the ship with the payment of this $5 per man for the bad food, for the Court is satisfied that there was no complaint to the captain, and the Court can't see how he was to know that the sailors were not getting good food if they did not complain to him."

"That's what we think would be right to pay us," Collins said.

Attorney Davis kept calling witnesses and more witnesses to tell of the same conditions, but finally Judge Estee lost patience.

"Seems to me you've proved the fact that the food was bad," he said. "Anyway the Court is satisfied of it. But the Court is not going to charge the ship with the payment of this $5 per man for the bad food, for the Court is satisfied that there was no complaint to the captain, and the Court can't see how he was to know that the sailors were not getting good food if they did not complain to him."

"That's what we think would be right to pay us," Collins said.

Attorney Davis kept calling witnesses and more witnesses to tell of the same conditions, but finally Judge Estee lost patience.

"Seems to me you've proved the fact that the food was bad," he said. "Anyway the Court is satisfied of it. But the Court is not going to charge the ship with the payment of this $5 per man for the bad food, for the Court is satisfied that there was no complaint to the captain, and the Court can't see how he was to know that the sailors were not getting good food if they did not complain to him."

"That's what we think would be right to pay us," Collins said.

Attorney Davis kept calling witnesses and more witnesses to tell of the same conditions, but finally Judge Estee lost patience.

"Seems to me you've proved the fact that the food was bad," he said. "Anyway the Court is satisfied of it. But the Court is not going to charge the ship with the payment of this $5 per man for the bad food, for the Court is satisfied that there was no complaint to the captain, and the Court can't see how he was to know that the sailors were not getting good food if they did not complain to him."

"That's what we think would be right to pay us," Collins said.

Attorney Davis kept calling witnesses and more witnesses to tell of the same conditions, but finally Judge Estee lost patience.

"Seems to me you've proved the fact that the food was bad," he said. "Anyway the Court is satisfied of it. But the Court is not going to charge the ship with the payment of this $5 per man for the bad food, for the Court is satisfied that there was no complaint to the captain, and the Court can't see how he was to know that the sailors were not getting good food if they did not complain to him."

"That's what we think would be right to pay us," Collins said.

Attorney Davis kept calling witnesses and more witnesses to tell of the same conditions, but finally Judge Estee lost patience.

"Seems to me you've proved the fact that the food was bad," he said. "Anyway the Court is satisfied of it. But the Court is not going to charge the ship with the payment of this $5 per man for the bad food, for the Court is satisfied that there was no complaint to the captain, and the Court can't see how he was to know that the sailors were not getting good food if they did not complain to him."

"That's what we think would be right to pay us," Collins said.

Attorney Davis kept calling witnesses and more witnesses to tell of the same conditions, but finally Judge Estee lost patience.

"Seems to me you've proved the fact that the food was bad," he said. "Anyway the Court is satisfied of it. But the Court is not going to charge the ship with the payment of this $5 per man for the bad food, for the Court is satisfied that there was no complaint to the captain, and the Court can't see how he was to know that the sailors were not getting good food if they did not complain to him."

"That's what we think would be right to pay us," Collins said.

Attorney Davis kept calling witnesses and more witnesses to tell of the same conditions, but finally Judge Estee lost patience.

"Seems to me you've proved the fact that the food was bad," he said. "Anyway the Court is satisfied of it. But the Court is not going to charge the ship with the payment of this $5 per man for the bad food, for the Court is satisfied that there was no complaint to the captain, and the Court can't see how he was to know that the sailors were not getting good food if they did not complain to him."

"That's what we think would be right to pay us," Collins said.

Attorney Davis kept calling witnesses and more witnesses to tell of the same conditions, but finally Judge Estee lost patience.

"Seems to me you've proved the fact that the food was bad," he said. "Anyway the Court is satisfied of it. But the Court is not going to charge the ship with the payment of this $5 per man for the bad food, for the Court is satisfied that there was no complaint to the captain, and the Court can't see how he was to know that the sailors were not getting good food if they did not complain to him."

"That's what we think would be right to pay us," Collins said.

Attorney Davis kept calling witnesses and more witnesses to tell of the same conditions, but finally Judge Estee lost patience.

"Seems to me you've proved the fact that the food was bad," he said. "Anyway the Court is satisfied of it. But the Court is not going to charge the ship with the payment of this $5 per man for the bad food, for the Court is satisfied that there was no complaint to the captain, and the Court can't see how he was to know that the sailors were not getting good food if they did not complain to him."

"That's what we think would be right to pay us," Collins said.

HONOLULU STOCK EXCHANGE.

Honolulu, August 23, 1900.

NAME OF STOCK.	Capital	Val	Bid	Ask
MERCANTILE.
C. Brewer & Co.	1,000,000	100
SUGAR.
American Sugar Co.	1,500,000	100
Ewa.	5,000,000	100
Hamao.	175,000	100
Haw. Agricultural Co.	1,000,000	100
Haw. Com. & Sug. Co.	2,312,750	100
Hawaiian Sugar Co.	2,000,000	100
Honolulu.	750,000	100
Hokulua.	2,000,000	100
Kahuku.	500,000	100
Kamalo Sug. Co. Ltd.	2,000,000	100
Kipahulu.	250,000	100
Kona Sugar Co. Ass.	250,000	100
Maunaloa S. Co. Ass.	405,000	100
McBryde S. Co. Ltd.	85,500	100
Nahiku Sugar Co. Ass.	20,000	100
Oahu Sugar Co.	3,000,000	100
Onomae.	1,000,000	100
Ookala.	500,000	100
Olua Sugar Co. Ltd.	812,500	100
Panahau Sug. Plan. Co.	5,000,000	100
Papa.	750,000	100
Peepee.	750,000	100
Pioneer.	2,000,000	100
Waialua Agr. Co. Ass.	2,100,000	100
Waianae.	300,000	100
Waialeale.	700,000	100
Waipahoehoe.	252,000	100
Waimea.	125,000	100
STEAMSHIP COS.
Wilder S. S. Co.	500,000	100
Inter-Island S. S. Co.	500,000	100
MISCELLANEOUS.
Hawaiian Electric Co.	250,000	100
Hon. R. P. & L. Co.	250,000	100
Hon. Steam Laundry	25,000	100
Kona-Kau Telephone & Telegraph Co. Ltd.	15,000	25
Mutual Telephone Co.	130,000	100
Makaha Cof. Co. Ltd.	6,975	100
O. R. & L. Co.	2,000,000	100
People's Ref. Co.	150,000	100
BONDS.
Haw. Govt. 5 per cent.				99 1/2
Haw. Govt. 6 per cent.				99
Haw. Govt. Postal Savings 4 1/2 per cent.				100
Hilo R. Co. 6 per cent.				100
Ewa Plantation 5 p. c.				100
Kahuku Plant. 5 p. c.				100
O. R. & L. Co.				100

Session Sales—Afternoon Session—Port-five Waialua, assessable, $34.50; 9 Waialeale, assessable, $34.75; 25 McBryde, assessable, $42.50; 10 Kihel, assessable, $12.50.

Physicians would not recommend Jesse Moore Whiskey if they did not know it to be the best in the market.

Classified Advertisements.

WANTED.

COOK for plantation; wages $20 per month; only three in family. Address "Cook," this office. 5632

A POSITION as typewriter, by a young lady. Address "Typewriter," this office. 5630

TWO or three unfurnished rooms, kitchen and bath. Location and price, to L. Parsons, P. O. Box 778. 5631.

BY FIRST-CLASS nurse, position to take entire care of infant; state wages. Address "W. B.," Advertiser office. 5631

FOR RENT.

</